Affinity for Technology Questionnaire

Your attitude towards and interaction with electronic devices

Thank you for taking part in this survey. It should not take more than 5 minutes to complete the questionnaire.

This questionnaire explores your personal opinion on various aspects of electronic devices, and your experience using these devices.

The term "electronic devices" refers to devices such as computers, tablets, cell phones, digital cameras, smartwatches, digital smart home assistants, ATMs, ticket machines or new systems in cars such as navigation systems.

We are not referring to tools such as drills, saws, hammers, lawn mowers or simple household appliances such as toasters, hand mixers, kettles, or vehicles and vehicle engines.

Below you will find a series of statements. For each statement, please indicate how it applies to you personally. To do so, check the box on the right that best matches your opinion.
